

Release Notes for May/June 2012 SDR: Simplified

This ZIP file contains 2 programs.

All files that are in the “Documents and Settings” folder are the files used to make the FIR coefficient calculation program.

All files that come from the “TI” folder are used to make the filter program to load onto the TI development platform. See instructions from the March/April column for instructions on porting these files into a new Code Composer project.